General ethics:

We appreciate the protection of our planet and wish to contribute to the environmental protection by minimizing the imprint of the functioning of the Casería.

That is why we matter on your collaboration for:

Be attentive to the obvious dangers of fire in this region.

When radiators are switched on, you should not open windows

Avoid leaving the lights lit without necessity.

Do not let run the water pointlessly.

A shower consumes much less water than a bathtub... Think of it.

Avoid using all of the provided towels if you do not really need it and put them on the floor when you wish their replacement.

For the stays of more than a night, the linen of bed will be changed only on your request.

Trash cans are daily emptied and the recycling sorted by the owners.

We thank you for your understanding and for your collaboration.
